The  SPIRIT

of Howard College

WHAT IS THIS S P I R I T ?

The Spirit of Howard College is something that can be felt constantly everywhere about the campus — in the classrooms, in the Co-Op, on the ball field, in the dorms, barracks, and sorority houses, at Chapel Exercises, Morning Watch and Vespers. Our students are happy because they have that certain something other schools will never have. Such is the atmosphere of a college dedicated to higher purposes than just educating students to words printed in books. Though we who are graduating will leave many things behind, there is one thing we cannot leave — the true Spirit of Howard College: A spirit of consecration, co-operation and congeniality.

In Memoriam

Dr. Fred C. Mobee, 72, well-known and well-loved Howard Chemistry professor died last fall after a brief illness.

Dr. Mobee, who made his home in Birmingham, came here after his retirement from Bates College at Lewiston, Maine, where he served 23 years as professor of chemistry.

A native of Victoria, Ontario, Dr. Mobee was the youngest of four sons. He received his A.B. degree in 1905 from McMaster University, then in Toronto. He received his Ph.D. degree in chemistry from Columbia University, New York City, in 1930.

For fourteen years Dr. and Mrs. Mobee were stationed at Shonghoi University, China, with the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

A member of Sigma Xi and AAAS, Dr. Mobee was also an active member of the American Chemical Society, the American Association of University Professors, and the Ruhama Baptist Church.

After Dr. Mobee's death, a sum was raised by his family, and friends of the College, to dedicate a pew in his honor in the proposed Howard Chapel at the new campus.

After 30 years of inspiring teaching, dedicated service, and loyal support to the college he loved and that loved him, Dr. George W. Hess has closed his classroom and office doors and retired.

But it will be an active retirement. Dr. Hess is the kind of man who will never quit studying and learning and teaching. Gifted with a vigorous and brilliant mind, Dr. Hess had taught mathematics to literally thousands of students at his beloved Howard — dozens of who went on to become outstanding engineers, scientists, and teachers.

As it should come to all those who have labored long and well, Dr. Hess was specially honored at his retirement from Howard. Old friends, students, and faculty colleagues gathered at an hour's chapel program to pay tribute to this Christian gentleman and scholar — a man whose life exemplified the true Howard Spirit.

DEDICATION

In tribute to Dean Dale, a man whose equal is hard to find. Sincere . . . loyal . . . understanding . . . inspiring . . . cheerful — these are but a few of the words which describe such a man as Dean Dale.

His sincerity and loyalty have left an indelible imprint upon the minds of members of the Howard Student Body — both today's and yesterday's. His understanding and sense of fair play have helped many a student through a problem encountered during his or her college stay.

His inspiration and the cheer found in his manner exemplify the ideal maturity toward which each student instinctively strives.

Since 1941, many students have come to love, honor, and admire this faithful component of the whole of college itself. Because he reveals the living "Spirit of Howard" we, the staff, dedicate our 1956 Entre Nous.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

June 6, 1956

To The Graduates:

You have received your diploma, an evidence of approved accomplishment. However it is but a marker along life's way to aid you in measuring your progress toward a successful life.

These have been pleasant years which should constitute in the future good memories. They have been useful years if you have been inspired to love and seek the truth and if you have learned the technique of how to find the truth.

Every day should serve to transform our lives and this transformation only comes by constant effort and constant study.

May I bespeak also a loyalty to your Alma Mater. Colleges which do not receive public funds must rely upon the generosity of those who believe that such colleges make a necessary contribution to humanity. It is my conviction that colleges of this character are essential and it is my hope that this will be your conviction and consequently bring to the college, in the future years, your support.

Sincerely,

Harwell G. Davis, President
Howard College

DEAN OF WOMEN

Dean Margaret D. Sizemore has won a place in the hearts of all Howard students that will not be erased with time. Not only does she serve the College in the capacity of "Dean of Women", but her office is the center of almost every campus activity. She received her B.A. and M.A. from Howard and holds the Degre Normale from the Sourbonne in Paris, France.

MRS. MARGARET D. SIZEMORE

DEAN OF MEN

Dean William Pratt Dale, II stands as an example of a man imbued with extraordinary courage to the students at Howard. Dean Dale moved from Kentucky to Hale County, Alabama, where he entered grade school. His high school education was obtained at Marblehead, Massachusetts. The next two years he spent at Delta State and then transferred to Duke University where he earned three degrees: B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. Since 1941 Dean Dale has been a definite part of the Spirit of Howard.

The money is $11,120,000.

The show is the new Howard College rising on the mognificent mauntain-sweep of Birmingham's Lakeshare Drive.

The go, in this case, indicotes one year to go on the contemplated date, September 1957, for moving Howard to its new $11,120,000 campus.

PROGRAM

Buildings now complete on the new 65-acre tract are the administration building, the general science building, and the faculty apartment.

The library, which has a 500,000 volume capacity, is three-fourths complete. All of these buildings are paid for.

According to President Horwell G. Davis, "Five additional buildings are needed before we can move to the new campus."

"The five buildings needed to be built are the biology building, chapel and school of religion, student administration building, the men's and the women's dormitories."

PROFESSOR JAMES H. CHAPMAN

The purpose of the Department of Bible and Religious Education is to train college students to be better Christian leaders on campus, in their churches, and in their communities. It also gives adequate training to those students who plan to make their life's vocation in the field of religion.

Howard offers many courses in Bible and Religious Education. Some of these are Church Leadership, History of Religion, Clinical Homiletics, and Bible Doctrines. There are many more.

The Biology Department offers courses which give the student a fundamental and practical knowledge of living organisms, their relationships one to another, and their place in the scientific world. While the cultural value is emphasized the courses are outlined to meet the basic needs of secondary school teachers, graduate students, and students planning to enter such specialized fields as medicine, dentistry, home economics, medical technology, nursing, pharmacy, public health, physical education, etc.

The Chemistry Department offers courses including those basic principles of chemistry necessary for scientific and technical fields, such as medicine, engineering, pharmacy, agriculture, industrial and pure chemistry. Those expecting to become professional chemists or chemical engineers follow the courses recommended by the American Chemical Society including inorganic, analytical, organic, and physical chemistry.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND ECONOMICS

DR. RECTOR HARDIN
Head of the Department

The Department of Economics and Business Administration strives to give its students a broad and thorough knowledge of the economic society into which they will emerge and function, and also an awareness of the larger social universe in which economics has its being. It seeks to prepare its students for advanced graduate and professional study, and for responsible positions in the world of government and business.

DR. W. D. MURRAY
Head of Department

The purpose of the Department of Education is to give professional preparation to teachers and to offer the general student cultural advancement and preparation for the intelligent participation in public and private education which good citizenship demands. The work of the department also provides an appropriate foundation for graduate work and advanced study in the various areas of education.

PROFESSOR DOBBINS

At Howard, English is both a training in technique and a study of material. As a technique it considers grammar and the accepted formalities of the language. It deals with precision of thought and logic of statement.

The material studied in English courses is broadly called literature. The thoughts, emotions, and the activities of real or imaginary people are presented memorably and with meaning. It provides the essentials of life — moral truth and human passion, dealt with sensibly and attractively — providing experience far beyond our ordinarily busy and short lives.

The goal of the Home Economics program is to contribute to the improvement of home and family living as well as to help prepare professionally in the field of home economics. Young women and men may elect courses in home economics for personal enrichment or for background in other vocations. They may also major in Home Economics or Foods and Nutrition.

The entire program of home economics is based on democratic procedures. Experiences are provided for cooperation teacher-student planning, experimentation, and cooperative evaluation. Many teaching and learning aids are used in all courses.

JOURNALISM

The increasing demand of the public that it have accurate and adequate information is thrusting a new challenge upon the profession of journalism. Public opinion is built primarily upon facts or the interpretation of facts, so it is highly important that journalists be extremely well qualified and fully aware of the responsibility which rests upon them.

The Department of Journalism at Howard is designed to offer journalistic training to two types of students: (1) those who expect to enter journalism as a career, and (2) those who would find one or more journalism courses very helpful in their profession.

ENGINEERING

American colleges each year hand out about seventeen thousand diplomas to students in engineering. This important field requires extensive training in mathematics, chemistry, and physics.

Howard's pre-engineering curriculum prepares the prospective engineer for advanced study. Under an agreement with Vanderbilt University, after three years of study a student can transfer to Vanderbilt and upon completion of two years of study there will receive degrees from both colleges.

Associate Professor
LESTER O. POLLOCK

M A T H

With the ever increasing need for mathematicians in all fields of technical industry, the study of mathematics has become more important each year. The well trained mathematician can find employment in an increasing variety of jobs.

The Mathematics Department at Howard is serving several purposes. The primary function is to provide each student with a basic course in mathematics. In addition, they also teach advanced courses for those interested in engineering, chemistry, and the teaching of mathematics. Courses are taught in both theoretical and applied mathematics.

Attainment of reading knowledge and basic ability in writing and speaking the respective languages are the objectives of the nuclear courses in the modern foreign language courses. To this end the languages studied are to be spoken in the classroom and in laboratory periods and all possible visual and auditory aids, such as movies and phonograph records, are to be used. Newspapers and periodicals are to be used for supplementary reading. Singing songs in the language studied is a regular feature of these courses.

MUSIC

Study of Music at Howard College is designed with a four-fold purpose: to prepare the most talented for artistic careers as professional musicians and for advanced study; to prepare students to teach music either in schools or privately; to prepare musicians in sacred music who will serve their communities and churches; and to enrich the lives of those who choose it as an avocation.

To meet these various demands the college offers the degree of Bachelor of Music, with areas of concentration in voice, instrumental music, music education, sacred music, and the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

SOCIOLOGY

PROFESSOR DICKINSON

Sociology is defined as the science of the origin, development, and constitution of society. Howard's Sociology Department is more than adequate to handle this job. The classes study the local as well as the national systems in our society, and how they are functioning at the present time. An area of concentration is offered in this field and it prepares the graduate to better understand the people around him.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OBENCHAIN

SPEECH AND DRAMATIC ARTS

The courses in the Speech Department are planned to give the student an organized knowledge of the essentials of speech from both the scientific and artistic aspects and to enable him to develop a personal proficiency that will be of use to him in professional and social relationships.

The drama courses are so set up that a student concentrating in this area may take advanced work in any one of the following: acting, playwriting, producing, directing. Each student selecting this area of concentration is required to be a stage manager on a Masquer's production.

There are many reasons for any college to have a yearbook. At Howard our reason is faced with solemnity and prayer by the editors, the staff, the faculty, and the student body. Far herein is the purpose—to portray through words and pictures the unchanging spirit of a college, founded by men upon the Word of God, the classroom spirit, the campus spirit, the devotional spirit—all mirrored in the pages of this book.

The final production of this yearbook has climaxed a long, but satisfying year of hard work for the Barbara Bryant displays her captivating talent in the Susan Grant, a confounding woman who brings her parents the Marshals and stays housekeeper. Another young Luther Davis, presents in a fashion the emotions of a man dominated by a tyrant aunt.

Demonstrating her ability to adapt herself to character, Maurine Sanford fires your best emotions toward a very sensitive and very domineering Judith Bickle. Jessie Bickle, the extreme opposite of Judith, is enacted by Joyce Scott, who suffers long tongue-lashings of her sister before she gains the confidence to speak her mind.

Susan's parents, Marian Grant, a very successful career woman, and Steven Grant, whose spirit has been crushed by his wife's more successful career, are played by newcomer Polly Prosch and old-time favorite Roy Ambrester. George Yost, Jack Merrill, is in love with Susan, but can't quite understand her fear of marriage caused by the poor example that her parents have presented to her.

Joe Keating, played by Joe Daniels, gets into much trouble by stealing property from Senator James Polk, Cliff McCloud, a man who has little room in his heart for weakness or love. Joining the group that often finds itself at the Marshals' door for recreation and counseling, are two high school girls, Ann Henderson and Jeanne Lamb. SECOND ROW: Ruby Moore, Margaret Faulk, Daphine Edwards, Martha Bonkston, Sadie Best . . . STANDING: Bill Cale, Bob Curlee, Myra Crawford.

The success of any paper is due to the hard work of its staff. The Crimson kept its good rating among college newspapers this year through the efforts of not only the editor but nearly every staff member.

Myra Crawford, associate editor and business manager, was awarded the W.S.G.A. Ribbon of Service for her outstanding work on the Crimson.

BULL PUP

Annual publication by the Howard College Student Government in cooperation with Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity.

B U L L P U P

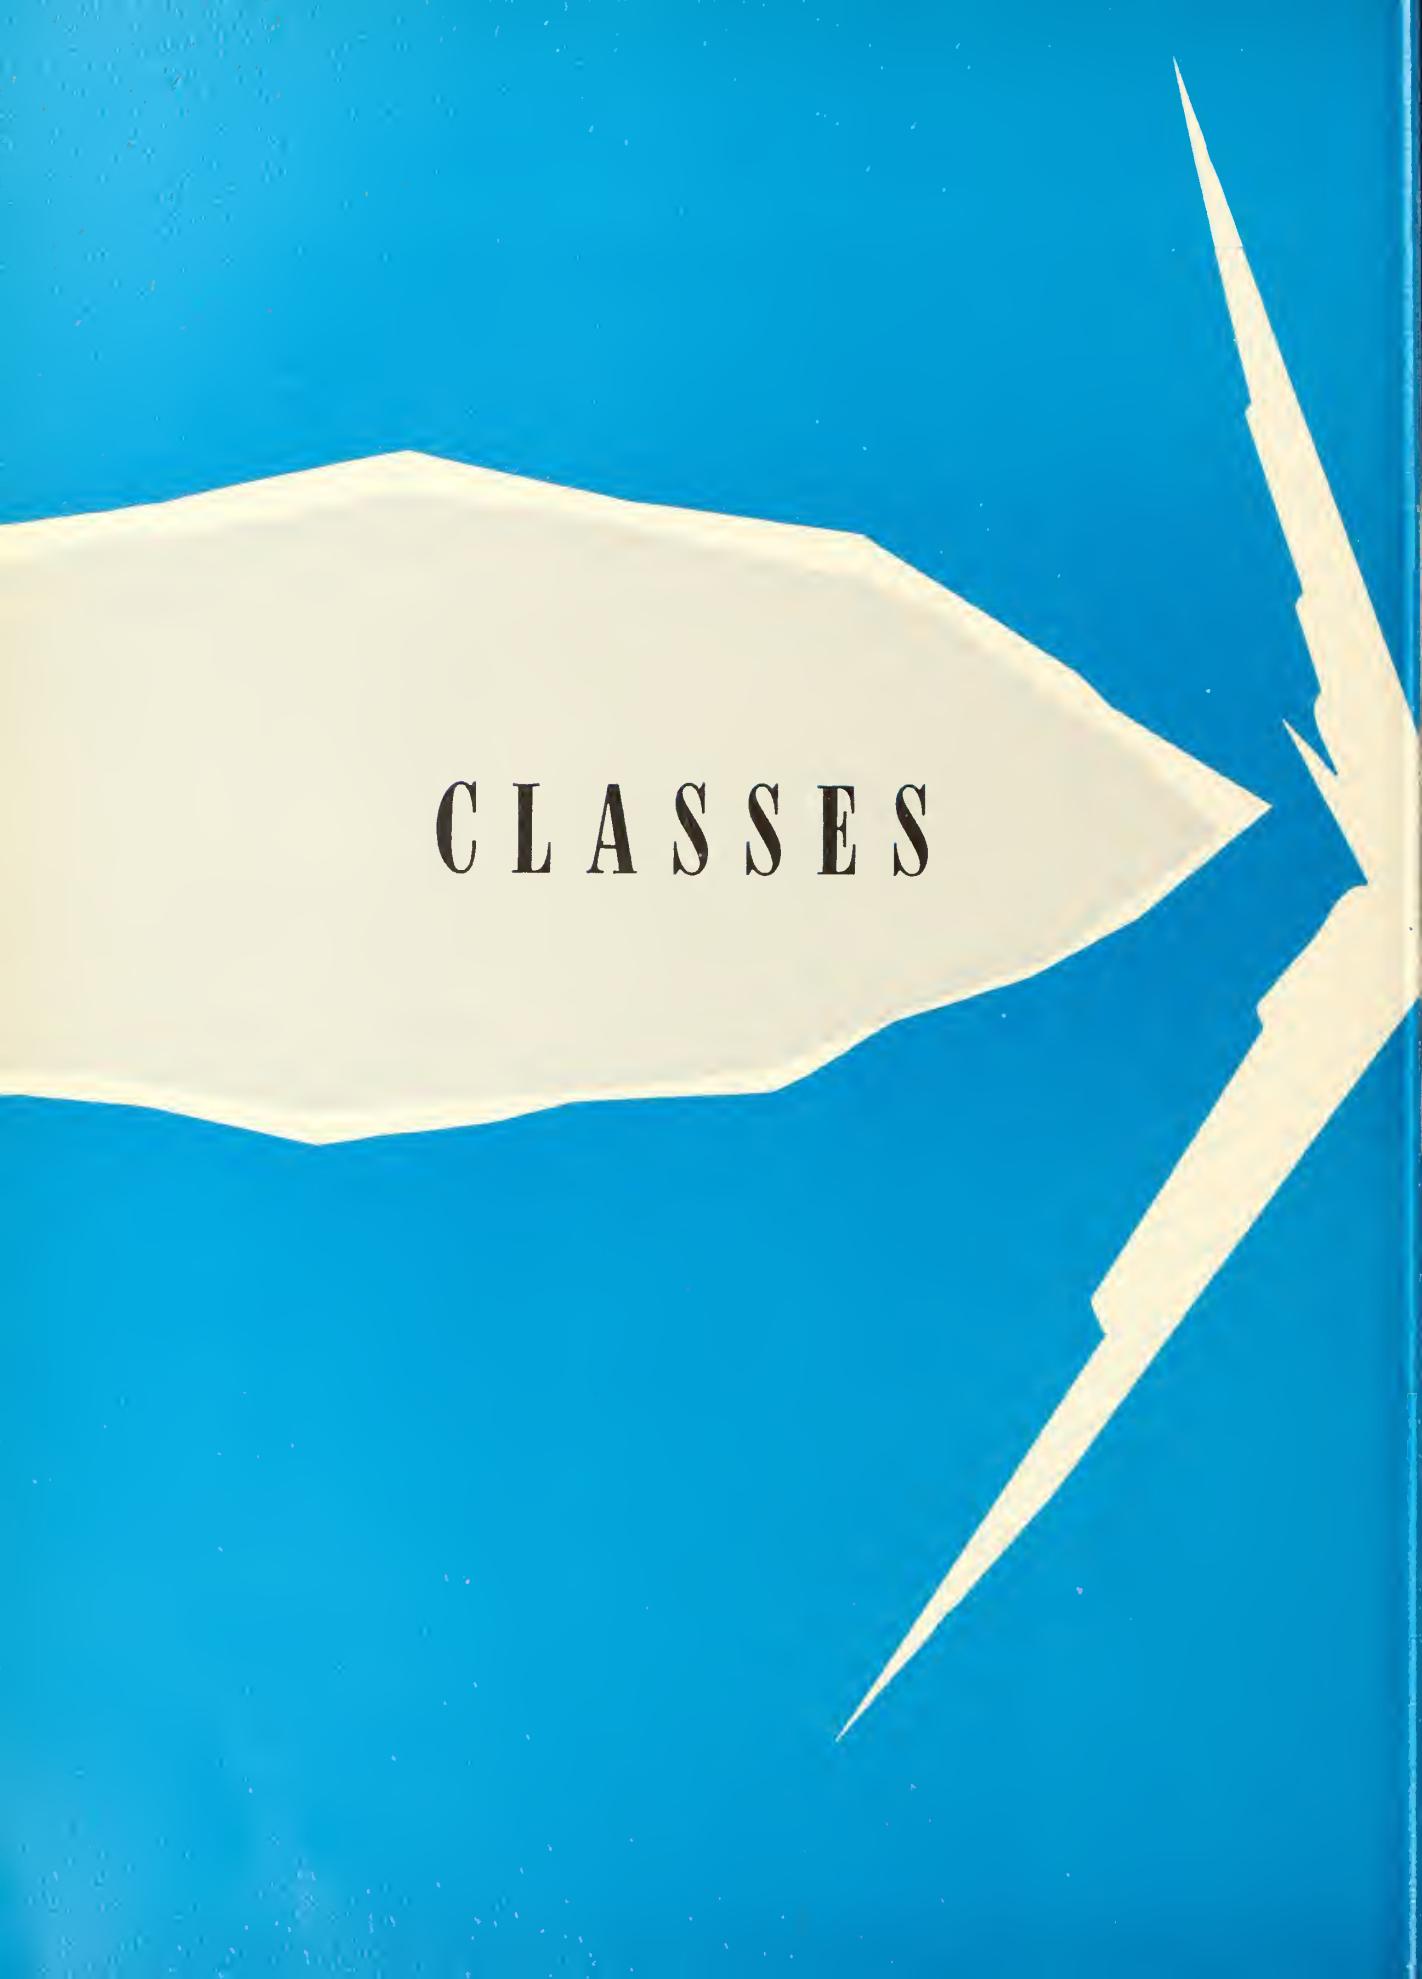

LOWELL VANN
Editor

The Bull Pup is a combination of two former publications, the Student Directory and the Bull Pup. The latter was first published for the benefit of the freshmen only, giving information about the administration, student body officers, and the customs of Howard. The Student Directory was a list of every student at Howard—his home address, local address, telephone number, and classification. In 1952, the student body voted to combine these two publications to produce the Bull Pup now used.

With the help of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, which annually co-sponsors this publication with the Student Senate, Editor Lowell Vann and Business Manager Bob Curlee had the Bull Pup ready for the student body early in October.

MEMPHIS NAVY

Scoring twice in the fourth quarter the Memphis Navy Hellcats defeated the Bulldogs by a 14-7 margin. Their scores came on runs of 25 and 38 yards by R. E. Fisher and C. A. Lampshire. Gerald Tuck raced 60 yards on the third play from scrimmage to tally Howard's only points. He also kicked the extra point.

OCTOBER 1

SEWANEE

The Bulldog's eleven came from behind in the final period to chalk up a 20-14 win over the University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee. The win not only enabled Howard to even its season record at 1-1 but it also marked the first time in history that a Bulldog football team had beaten Sewanee on its home ground. Both teams failed to score in the first quarter of play, but late in the second period, Sewanee came to life and pushed across a touchdown as the Tigers led 7-0 at the end of the first Half.

Howard came back in the third period after having recovered a Tiger fumble on the 29 yard line, then a pass play from Wesley Wade to James Caman developed into the first Bulldog TD. However, Gerald Tuck's conversion try was blocked. Later in the quarter, QB Charles Anderson rammed over from the one-yard line. Fullback Tuck converted this time and the Bulldogs led 13-7. Determined Sewanee fought back, however an 80 yard march aided by two Howard penalties to score their final and take the lead 14-13. The Bulldogs cinched the game in the final minutes of the fourth period when Fullback Tuck blocked a kick in the end zone for the tally, and then converted, ending the game 20-14.

JAMES CHANDLER

OCTOBER 8

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE

Mississippi College Chactaws came from behind twice to defeat Howard 19-14. Howard led at the half, 7-6. Charles Anderson hit halfback Jimmy Karr on a pass play which covered 58 yards and Gerald Tuck kicked the extra point. In the third period, Howard swept 50 yards for an apparent score, only to have it nullified by a holding penalty. Then an 80-yard drive for points, Fullback Carol Early sneaked across from the four. Chuck Anderson made the extra point.

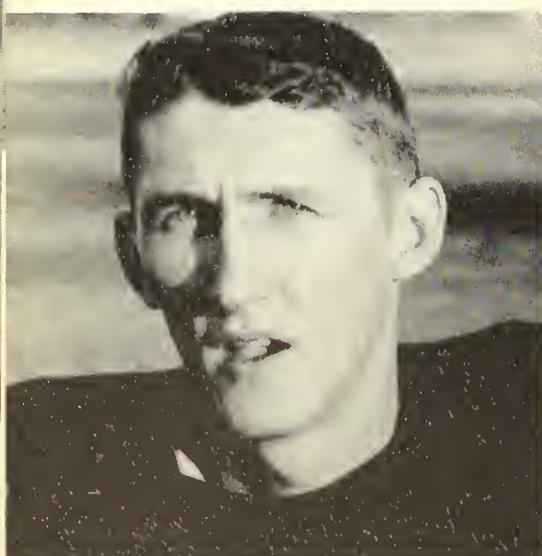

OCTOBER 14

MILLSAPS

Though the Bulldogs worked hard in preparation for the Millsaps Majors, the alert team turned every break to their advantage to fashion a 33-6 victory over the fumble-riden Bulldogs on this October 14. Howord fumbled six times. Millsaps' Rushing fumbled trying to return a Howord punt from his 27 and Joe Lawley recovered for the Bulldogs. Freeman got 9, Early 10 and Anderson 6 to put the ball on the Majors' one. Freeman then carried across for Howord's only score.

OCTOBER 22 - UNIVERSITY OF MEXICO

Howard lost its HOMECOMING 41-13 to the University of Mexico played at Legion Field, but the Bulldogs won a spot in international football history. At least two firsts, historically speaking, come out of the tilt. It was the first time a Mexican team had ever played in Alabama. Also it was the first time in history that the flags of two different countries—America and Mexico—had flown over Legion Field.

NOT PICTURED:

Jack Freeman, Johnny Otts, Wesley Wade, Darrell Holmes, Jimmy Karr.

During the pre-game activity the Band first played the American National Anthem followed by the Mexican National Anthem and the Mexicans extended their welcome in their own language.

Howard did itself right proud the first half, holding the dark-skinned visitors to a 20-13 lead at the rest period, but the inevitable Mexican Quarterback Gustavo Patino, is as talented a ballhandler as you'd want to see.

Leeds Freshman Jimmy Karr slammed through right guard and sped on 69 yards to give Howard a 6-point lead halfway through the first period. After Mexico had taken a 14-6 lead early in the second quarter, Quarterback Chuck Anderson and Left End James Coman hooked up on a beautiful 54-yard scoring play through the air. Then when Mexico drove 47 yards to Howard's 34, they lost the ball as Guard Al Corcoran covered a Puma fumble. After Halfback Derrell Halmes lost three, Karr steamed through right guard on the next play and went all the way.

Despite the drubbing our Bulldogs took, 5000 partisan Howard fans remained in good spirits, yelling encouragement to the team up to the final gun. A better example of sportsmanship was never seen. Not once during the game was there any discussion of the officiating or jeering at the Mexicans. Instead, on several occasions the fans applauded the Mexicans' brilliant offensive show.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE

Maryville College brought to town a powerful single-wing attack to defeat Haward 21-12 at the Shades Valley Stadium. Haward opened the scoring with 10 minutes gone in the second period. The Bulldogs drove 80 following a recovery of a Maryville fumble on the Haward 20. Carl Early streaked 26 yards to the 21. A 15-yard penalty moved Haward to the six. Early made one at guard and on the next play Anderson connected with Red Caman in the end zone for the tally. After the Scatties fired away, Anderson took to the air lanes to try to bring his crew back and did a good job of it as the Bulldogs started back to move 70 yards to tally. He first threw to Tuck for 28 yards, then to Freeman for 23 yards, and the last to Caman in the end zone. On four separate occasions the Haward line led by Wayne Walker, Bob Narred, Joe Lawley and Bill Marsh, stopped Maryville drives within the Bulldog 10 yard line.

NOVEMBER 5

SOUTHWESTERN

Several lapses on defense proved costly as little Jimmy Karr makes a clean get-away.

WAYNE WALKER

RUDOLPH DAVIDSON

BOB NORRED

Howard fell to Southwestern of Memphis here 25-7 in a game that was closer than the score indicates. Howard drove to the Southwestern six-yard line in the second period but Anderson's fourth down plunge was just inches short of a first down. However, the Bulldogs countered with a dazzling passing attack and a 23-yard gallop by Fullback Gerald Tuck to get a touchdown. Anderson made the touchdown on a sneak and Tuck's point try was perfect.

Big "Red" Coman receives one in the end zone.

CARSON NEWMAN

Howard dropped their sixth straight game to a good Carson-Newman eleven of Jefferson City, Tennessee by a 47-7 margin. Carson Newman Eagles jumped off to a quick lead and the Bulldogs couldn't keep in step with them. At halftime the Eagles led 26-0; 19 of these points coming in the first period. The Bulldogs were unable to dent the scoring column until late in the fourth quarter when Chuck Anderson plunged into the end zone from the one yard line. Jim Karr got the seventh point on an end sweep.

NOVEMBER 19

JACKSONVILLE STATE

In the last game of the season, Jacksonville rolled over Howard 67-24, being second in the nation among small colleges in rushing yardage. Howard's only score in the first half came when Charles Anderson passed 58 yards to James Coman 55 seconds before the half ended. In the second half, the Bulldogs went 63 yards, mostly on a 42 yard pass from Anderson to Lawley. Anderson scored from the one. Then again, Andy passed the Bulldogs to the one and scored. He was awarded the trophy as the game's most outstanding player.

Anderson is selected most outstanding player in the Jacksonville State game.

The Bulldogs had a very successful season in Basketball, winning over fifty percent of their games.

One of the highlights of the season was the winning of the Muscle Shoals Invitational Tournament. The Championship was considered a minor "surprise", as Southern was favored. Howard stopped host team Florence 77-70 on Friday night and then crumpled Troy 65-63 in the finals.

HOWARD vs. BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN

Facing the prospect of being shut off from a city championship for the first time since 1951, the Bulldogs went roaring defiance into Birmingham-Southern's bandbox gymnasium on the night of January 31. And when they were through, they'd handed 'Southern Panthers their first home loss of the season. Winning 68-56, the Bulldogs avenged an earlier 83-55 shellacking handed them by these same Hilltoppers only 19 nights before.

Howard's twa Bill's — Karrh and Lankford, wha keyed bath of the Bulldog successes against the Panthers last season, were right in the middle of the victory drive. Lankford scared 20 while Karrh was the "big" rebound man of the night with 10 points.

Guard Jae Campbell, the Junior College All-American wha was appearing in only his third game with the Bulldogs, alsu played a dominant role in the victory, his jump shooting and ball-handling and foking keeping the Panther constantly off balance. He had 14 points far the night. Behind Lankford and him, Medlock matched Karrh's total and Barnes had nine.

ALPHA DELTA PI

ALPHA DELTA PI, the oldest national sorority, was founded on May 15, 1851 at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia. Kappa Chapter was established at Judson College in 1910, and was moved to Howard on May 10, 1919. One of the highlights of this year was the Winter Wonderland Formal in December. New officers were presented at the annual banquet in February. Sue Tucker served W. S. G. A. as President and will be followed by another Alpha Delt, Nelda Cross. Nelda was also named Sigma Nu sweetheart. Virginia Hayes was named outstanding pledge for the first semester, and Shelby Feaster for the second semester. Carol Nunnally and Pat Dill served on the cheering squad. Sue Tucker and Carolyn Adams were elected to "Who's Who Among Student In American Universities and Colleges". Joan Paul was awarded the High Sports Trophy for 1955. Many trophies were added to the mantle — the City Pan-Hellenic Scholarship, Softball, Volleyball, Basketball, and the All Sports Trophy. A big year was wound up with a houseparty.

FIRST ROW: Kathryn Beaty, Elizabeth Beauchamp, Jayce Bandurant, Nelda Crass, Pat Dill . . . SECOND ROW: Jan Eagles, Shelby Feaster, Barbara Flowers, Lynn Grass, Anita Hagaad . . . THIRD ROW: Virginia Hayes, Babs McCarquadale, Carol Nunnally, Jaan Paul, Pally Prasch . . . FOURTH ROW: Sue Tucker, Malissa Turner, Bettye Vardaman, Alice Weaver, and Molly Sue Williams.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority was founded in Columbia, Missouri, December 12, 1888. Members of the Beta Beta chapter have brought many honors to their national headquarters during the past year. They placed first in the step singing. Wilsan Wilhite, their Beta Beau, came out second place in the Ugly Man Contest. A freshman member, Jeanne Lamb, brought pride to her sisters when she was chosen runner-up in the Miss Entre Nous Contest. Pat Evans made them equally glad by being chosen a favorite. Gaile Kniep was elected Pink Lady, as being the member who best represented the ideals of Beta Sigma Omicron. Caralyn Blackwell wears the Lois Mitchell pin in memory of a beloved alum who was killed in an automobile accident. Three girls were named pledge sweethearts in the past year: Jeanne Lamb, of Lambda Chi Alpha, Jerry Wildsmith of Delta Sigma Phi, and Gaile Kniep of Sigma Nu. Martha Bankstan was recognized by BSO on Service Day. Sarah Jo Patterson received the Outstanding Freshman Award. Beta Beta feted the Lambs, Delta Sigs, H-Club, and Sigma Nus with parties during the year. Jeanne Lamb was also chosen Miss Army Reserve. Beta Sigs placed second in inter-sorority scholarship.

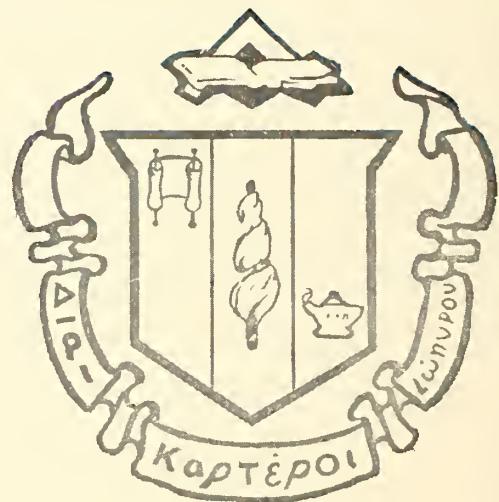

FIRST ROW: Martha Bankstan, Lila Ann Beasley, Carolyn Blackwell, Annabelle Bradley, Barbara Brackman, Minnie Ruth Butler . . . SECOND ROW: Helen Christu, Peggy Cax, Suzanne Hackney, Ann Hall, Mary Elizabeth Janes, Gail Kniep . . . THIRD ROW: Jeanne Lamb, Culleen Meredith, Sara Ja Patterson, Ruby Reynolds, Carlene Self, Sandra Smith.

Kay Sorrell, Jerry Wildsmith, and Betty Yerby.

DELTA ZETA

DELTA ZETA — founded Miami University, October 24, 1902, has grown into 80 college chapters. With the beginning of fall Alpha Pi was proud to have eleven pledges wear the sorority colors of killarney rose and vieux green. Julia Franklin brought honor to Delta Zeta by being a finalist in the "Miss Alabama" contest; her talent for singing has represented us well. Founders Day was celebrated with a banquet. DZ's treated the children at the Mercy Home with a Christmas Party. The "Delta Zeta Man of the Year", Bill Meredith, was awarded a gold loving cup. Janice Putnam was awarded a cup for being the "Best Pledge of the Year". Elizabeth Ritchey, our president, was elected assistant head cheerleader. Ann Margaret Laftin was chosen Valley-ball all-star and Dorothy Ramsey was all-star in basketball and volleyball. Polly Pigg used her pantomime talents to represent Delta Zeta in various activities. We had the annual Rose Presentation to the theme of "Stronger in Paradise". The anniversary of the founding of our Alpha Pi chapter was celebrated May 10 with a birthday party for the sorority lodge given by the pledges.

PHI MU

PHI MU — second oldest national sorority, was founded at Wesleyan College in 1852, Macon, Georgia. The Alpha Gamma Chapter had a very successful year, winning both the House Decoration's Trophy and the Best Decorated Car for the Homecoming festivities, one of the highlights of the school year. We also placed second in the "W. S. G. A. Step-Sing". Many of the Phi Mus have been outstanding in the various phases of activity on the campus — Joan Barton, Babs Bryant, and Myra Crawford were majorettes. Joy Merrill and Sue Curtis were on the cheering squad — Sue was head cheerleader. Lou Jean Porter, a finalist in the "Miss Alabama" contest, held the lead in Masquers "The Heiress", was tapped for Hypatia, named one of the 8 beauties for the 1956 ENTRE NOUS, and was selected Pi Kappa Alpha pledge sweetheart for the second semester. Betty Whittington wore the badge first semester. Quinn was the "big boss" in Women's Intramural Association, while Cassell assisted as Vice-President. Ruby Moore edited The Crimson, was Vice-President of W. S. G. A. and was Lambda Chi Alpha's Pledge sweetheart. Aside from being head cheerleader, "Curty" edited this 1956 ENTRE NOUS, was selected one of the Beauties for the yearbook, 1955 Alabama State College Queen, placing third in the nation, "Miss Air Force Reserve of Alabama", and was one of the top five beauties at the "Fiesta of Five Flags" in Pensacola, Florida. Ethel Van Dyke graced Lambda Chi Alpha as the 1956 Crescent Girl in addition to being a Beauty for the Entre Nous and elected to reign as "Greek Goddess" that climaxed Greek Week. Frances was Runner-Up for "Homecoming Queen", with Sue in the Court also. Myra was a "favorite" for the Entre Nous and Joy Stearnes was tapped in Pi Delta Phi, French honorary. Kathy was featured at Ruhama Baptist Church frequently as soloist. Three Alpha Gams were elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and College" — Quinn Kelley, Sue Curtis, and Ruby Moore. We experienced a magnificent year together striving "To practice day by day love, honor, truth. Thus keeping true to the meaning, spirit and reality of Phi Mu."

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA started off the 1955-56 year by pledging about 20 fellows. At their annual banquet they elected Ethel Van Dyke their dream girl. The Lambs were outstanding in most of the men's intramural sports and Robert DeMedicis played on the Varsity Tennis Team. David Davidson was President of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity this year. All the brothers worked hard on the Homecoming Decorations and came in second on the judging. We ended the year with a week-end in Panama City immediately after finals.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

PI KAPPA ALPHA worked hard to keep that "Homecoming Decaratians" trophy and they did. Betty Lau Ary was presented Dream Girl at the annual French Party. Buddy Tharne and Jahnny Urquhart made the All-Star Intramural Faatball team, with Buddy making the basketball squad too. Alpha Pi had four members on the Varsity Faatball Team — Al Carcaran, Wayne Walker, Pete Hanna, and Red Caman. The fraternity received the Birmingham Alumni Association Scholarship Award at the Annual Pi Kappa Alpha Founders Day Banquet, March 17, 1956. Alpha Pi was chartered in 1911 and has been very active in college activities during all these years. Pi K A is one of the top ten National Social Fraternities in the United States and has maintained their position since its founding in 1868. The Fraternity is based on friendship and promotes brotherly love.

SIGMA NU

SIGMA NU fraternity walked away with the trophies in men's intramural sports this year, winning 6 for individual, dual, and team sports plus the trophy awarded annually for the "Outstanding Team in Intramural Sports". The Iata chapter was very proud when its Commander, Ben Bancroft, was elected by all the Greeks to reign as Greek God to climax Greek Week. Bab Walker was sports editor for the Crimsan. Gene Janes was a big man in Varsity Tennis while Terry Jae Suchey played B-Team basketball. Jimmy Wilson was elected president of Kappa Psi for the coming year. Jimmy Smith was outstanding in Varsity Football and Baseball. One of the highlights of the year was the "Open House" held on Friday nights for the benefit of everyone who just wanted to be together and talk and have fun.

ADVERTISEMENTS

8-YEAR ENLISTMENT PLAN

If you are between 17 and 18½, you can enlist directly into the U. S. Army Reserve in your own hometown. By volunteering for the Army Reserve before you reach draft age, you gain these advantages:

Short Active Duty Training Period . . . After enlisting directly into a hometown unit of Army Reserve, you are called for only six months of active duty for basic training!

You Can Finish High School . . . You will not be called for this training until you leave high school, by graduation or otherwise, or become 20 years of age, whichever occurs first.

Draft Deferment . . . You will be deferred from induction as long as you satisfactorily take part in the Army Reserve program for the eight years of your enlistment.

Train At Home . . . After basic training you return home. You attend 48 weekly drills at your local Army Reserve Training Center, plus a two week summer encampment every year. You will do all this with your friends and neighbors, as an important member of your hometown Army Reserve Unit.

Choice Of Unit . . . You choose the hometown Reserve Unit you want to serve with. Depending on your aptitudes and unit vacancies, you can often choose your exact job in the outfit—and you will be trained for that job during your six months training period. Naturally, the choice spots fill first.

6-YEAR ENLISTMENT PLAN

If you are of military age you can join your local Army Reserve under a new six year enlistment. Both enlistment plans give . . .

Choice of Time to Start Service (important in planning your future).

Fulfillment of Your Total Service at an Early Age . . . You can do it by 26 if you start early (Men can be drafted up to age 26).

Pay, Promotions . . . Every time you train with your Army Reserve Unit you earn a full day's army pay in your enlisted grade, and you are regularly considered for promotions.

Chance to Become an Officer . . . If you qualify, you can earn an Army Reserve commission . . . the Reserve is expanding fast . . . leaders will be needed more than ever. The early bird has the best chances, of course.

Leadership Training . . . Leadership is the life blood of the Army. All army training concentrates on bringing out this vital quality. Whatever your future career, training in leadership will pay off for the rest of your life.
